"Few wine firms in the world have produced more extraordinary wines... Michel Chapoutier has become one of this planet's bright shining lights." – Robert Parker

Ranked 5th in the World's Most Admired Wine Brands - Drinks International 2019

We are delighted to share with you 2 reds and 2 whites from M. Chapoutier, one of the legendary producers in the Rhône valley. These 4 wines from the Northern Rhône are the pinnacle of Marsanne and Syrah.

M Chapoutier, Saint-Péray

Situated in the historic centre of the Saint-Péray appellation, the Marsanne is grown on a clay-limestone soil. The clay gives the wine power, whilst the limestone adds more elegance, giving the wine an almost ethereal character.

"Bursting with notes of grilled pineapple and citrus".
- Wine Advocate

This is a historical cuvée for Chapoutier, where grapes from various terroirs are blended to bring a complete expression of Marsanne. Honeyed pear, citrus notes, with a rich, velvety texture.

"It's lush, broad and mouthfilling... A terrific wine this year, maybe the best I've ever tasted." - Wine Advocate

From the "Sélection Parcelleire", the reference point for the Rhône's finest appellations aka "Grand Cru". It's probably the most powerful and impressive Syrah on the hillside, planted on old granitic soil. The wine is approachable, yet immensely complex. Only 4 hectares. The 2008 is nice to drink now.
