Château Haut-Brion 1er Cru Classé Pessac-Léognan 2011

An Extraordinary First Growth and the only wine to be selected in both the 1855 Medoc GCC and the Graves Classification! Being an icon of excellence since the early 19th century, Chateau Haut Brion is a truly artisanal wine best known for its consistency and longevity.

2011 is a brilliant wine, with incredible fragrance and extraordinary length and concentration, which is approachable now and will keep well for decades!

"The most amazing aspect of this terroir is that the wine, despite all its power and richness, literally dances on the palate, as if it were a 90 pound ballerina." - Robert Parker

Château La Mission Haut-Brion Cru Classé Pessac-Léognan 1985

Along with Château Haut Brion, this is owned by the Dillon family and often considered the "6th First Growth", offering superb quality on par with Haut Brion and the other First Growths!

The Dillon family took over La Mission Haut Brion in 1983 and the 1985 is the first great vintage under their ownership. This is a mature wine with rich fruit aromas and complex spices, offering the signature elegance and refinement on the finish.

"Having put on considerable weight and richness, it now appears to be one of the stars of the vintage." - Robert Parker

Château Ausone 1er Grand Cru Classé A Saint-Émilion 2012

Lead by Alain Vauthier, whose family has been running Château Ausone since the 17th century, this is one of the finest terroirs in Bordeaux! Perched on Saint-Émilion's famous limestone plateau and calcareous clay slope, this precious spot is only 7 hectares. The result is the small production of a wine with stunning purity and richness in perfect harmony. Only 1,500 cases produced annually.

"the 2012 Ausone is one of the candidates for the wine of the vintage... This will be one of the profound 2012s, following what Haut Brion and Mission Haut Brion did in Pessac-Léognan." - Robert Parker

Château Leoville Las Cases 2ème Cru Classé Saint-Julien 2010

One of the highly sought after "Super Seconds", Léoville Las Cases is located on the finest plateaus in St-Julien. This is crafted with both passion and innovation, with lower fermentation temperatures and a fine touch of old vine Cabernet Franc in the blend, resulting in excellent quality that puts them in the same calibre as the First Growths!

"The 2010 is a quintessentially elegant, classic wine of Bordeaux – firm, rigid, perhaps slightly lighter than most of the other St-Julien, but stylish, potentially complex, and reminiscent of the style of the 1986, but more concentrated and powerful." - Robert Parker

GREAT REDS FOR THE SPRING DINNER

Amiral de Beychevelle Saint-Julien 2016

Second wine of the exquisite Château Beychevelle, a refined Saint-Julien that is famed for its elegance. Sharing the same techniques and passion as its big brother, the Amiral displays a lovely freshness and fine tannins, truly revealing the terrific Beychevelle terroir.

2016 is an outstanding vintage for Bordeaux, alongside the legendary 2009, 2010 and 2015 and should drink well relatively early, but would also reward aging. After nearly five years of aging, the Amiral 2016 is definitely a great value bottle, for you to have a glimpse of this amazing vintage!

Les Perrières Bordeaux Superieur 2018

One of the Six Crus of Lafleur, Les Perrières is considered a different expression of the Lafleur vineyards, located in the hamlet of Meyney, on the south-west crest of the plateau of Fronsac.

Quality and precision of tannins, complexity combined with restrained power, and a very long and mineral finish, make Les Perrières a true grand vin, and undoubtedly a close family member of Château Lafleur

"The 2018 Les Perrières de Lafleur is a total knock-out. Soaring aromatics make a strong opening statement. The 2018 is a serious wine that will benefit from time in the cellar. In a word: superb." - Antonio Galloni

Domaine Marchand-Grillot Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Petite Chapelle 2018

A family-run estate with deep roots in Gevrey-Chambertin, Marchand-Grillot is a shining star currently led by the fifth generation Jacques Marchand and his son Etienne, with an objective of creating traditional style wines. This Petit Chapelle is just down-slope adjoining the Grand Cru Chapelle-Chambertin, that makes an elegant, silky premiere cru that is approachable with beautiful aromas.

Crafted in the generously ripe 2018 vintage, the wine is made with whole clusters of grapes without-destemming and best illustrates the complexity of the terroir.

"The premier cru Petite Chapelle is definitely noteworthy."
- Jasper Morris

Quintarelli Primofiore IGT 2019

The gateway to the world of wines by the legendary Quintarelli, Primofiore is an innovative blend of indigenous grapes (Corvina and Corvinone) joined by French grapes (Cabernets Sauvignon and Franc) in equal parts. Matured in large oak barrels to preserve the true character of the terroir, this is an amazing wine ready to drink now, displaying densely ripe fruits and attractive herbs!

"2019 Primofiore is a terrific entry-level option from a vintage that promises extra fruit weight and richness." - Wine Advocate

"If one were to look for a twin for Pommard in the Côte-de Nuits, it would be Gevrey-Chambertin."
- Jasper Morris MW

"Ripe but controlled, (2018) is a very consistent range of fleshy but structured reds—which readers might think of as a more rounded version of the 2005 vintage—and elegant, fragrant."
- Wine Advocate

CASTELL'IN VILLA®

Located in the southern part of the Chianti Classico region, Castell'in Villa is known for producing some of the most traditionally-crafted and age-worthy wines in Italy. However, it has gone a step further in differentiating itself from other producers by releasing stocks progressively into the market, once deemed ready to drink.

This practice allows consumers to drink great wines, with a certain level of maturity.

"Castell'in Villa is one of the most historic estates in Chianti Classico."
- Antonio Galloni

Castell'in Villa, Chianti Classico DOCG 2017

The warm 2017 vintage made its mark on this rich and expressive Chianti Classico. With 12 months in oak and 18 months in bottle, the wine is showing great depth, with ripe dark fruits and a fine touch of earthy tones.

This is the perfect example of a beautiful Chianti, with the signature vibrancy and complexity of Castell'in Villa!

"The 2017 Chianti Classico will delight Castell'in Villa fans... All of the estate signatures are present, but the 2017 benefits from a bit more immediacy. Gorgeous!" - Vinous

SAN FILIPPO

MONTALCINO

As described by the Wine Advocate "San Filippo is home to some of the best boutique Brunello today... I am thrilled to have witnessed the growth of this promising estate throughout the years."
